Deployment Diagram for CampusSafe

In this deployment diagram for our CampusSafe App, we have the use's device, application server, and the database server. The physical device that the application will be used on can be either apple or android. We will use a login API to verify user credentials and report incident API that will send out notifications to the users device. Also, we will use a database to store login info and previous reports created.